they convisees the Southern palate that hog boiled and fried is not the choicest of human food. And we dare not say what moral schurm societies must be organized and put into the field to overcome the tendency to licentiousness, which, in deflance of the outery against naisogenation, of the New York Heroids and other papers of the moral reform, personation, has manufectured one mulatio far very; Democratic voter in all the rebel States. We believe that the desired reconstruction will come. Barbarism in so many We believe that the desired reconstruc-tion will coine. Barbarism in so many of the things which raise life above the bestiality of the savage state cannot leat forever. The flouth is a magnificent country. It will surely fall into the ranks, of the civilized and Christian States. Ac-cepting justice, as the rule of political action, it will get wisdom and culture as the guides and of payments of social and demestic life.
